

Sir/Mam,

We would like to speak in favor of the present no call policy restricting telephone telemarketing. The problem with telemarketing is not only their untimely calling but also their arrogance in sending their message. We have only received 3 calls since signing up for the restriction, before that, we occasionally received 3 or 4 during dinner. We appreciate Indiana's law and it's authority in this matter.

Thank You

Stan and Donna Dick